

2010 Alexandria Party Canvass Filing Form

Dear Republican Friend:

The Alexandria GOP welcomes anyone who shares a commitment to Republican principles. Whether it's volunteering on Election Day, attending a convention, dropping in on an occasional meeting, or serving as a member of the official committee (attending monthly meetings and leading volunteers in our campaigns), there's a role for everyone.

Every two years, the Alexandria Republican City Committee (ARCC), the official leadership of the Alexandria GOP, reconstitutes itself, giving Republican voters in the City the chance to elect their leaders. This process always precedes the Congressional District Convention. The ARCC has responsibility for determining how Republican candidates will be nominated for city office and supporting the campaigns of Republican nominees. Members ($65) attend monthly meetings and take responsibility for leading campaign efforts. Associate members ($35) may attend and participate in meetings and serve as volunteer leaders, but they have no vote and no attendance requirements.

This year's Congressional District Convention will elect a District Chairman to a two-year term and hear from the candidates for the nomination to face Congressman Jim Moran in November. Delegates ($35) are elected from Arlington, Fairfax, and Falls Church, as well as Alexandria. Delegates will convene on May 22 at TC Williams High School at 10 am.

We also have two affiliate organizations that welcome Alexandria Republicans to their activities, either as full members or associate members:

- Commonwealth Republican Women's Club (CRWC)—Republican Women who gather for monthly speakers, participate in community service, and work on campaigns. Full membership ($35) is open to women. Associate membership ($12) is open to men and to women who are full members of another Republican Women's Club.
- Alexandria Young Republicans (AYRs)—Republicans age 18-40 who gather for monthly speakers, social events, and campaign work. Full membership ($15) is open to Republicans in the age range with a postal address in Alexandria. Associate membership ($10) is open to Republicans over 40 or from outside of Alexandria.

You can use the form on the reverse side of this page to file for election as a member of the ARCC or as a delegate to the 8th District Convention, as well as to become a member of the CRWC or the AYRs, or an associate member of the ARCC, the CRWC, or the AYRs.

If you seek election as a member of the ARCC or as a delegate to the convention, you must return this form by first-class mail postmarked no later than Thursday, February 25, 2010. Alternatively, you may file online at www.AlexGOP.org.

For these two positions (ARCC Member and Delegate), by filing you agree to the following:

- I certify that I am a qualified voter in the City of Alexandria
- I am in accord with the principles of the Republican Party
- I intend to support the Republican nominees in (for convention delegates) the November 2010 General Election (for ARCC Members) all elections during the two-year term of the Committee
- I will work under the direction of ARCC Precinct Operations on Election Day.

Authorized by the Alexandria Republican City Committee and not any candidate or candidate's committee.
